

Why you should read Wuthering Heights:

1. It is a delightfully haunting and disturbing tale, filled with reprehensible creatures and redemptive souls.
2. Find out why the character of Heathcliff has haunted literature ever since his inception.
3. Find out why Johnny Depp and Angelina Jolie have agreed to make a film version of this novel.
4. In August 2007, according to www.books.guardian.co.uk, this novel beat out Pride and Prejudice for the U.K.'s best loved romance!

Why you may struggle with Wuthering Heights:

1. Many – nearly all – of the characters are reprehensible.
2. A gloomy and desolate mood pervades the narrative.
3. When published, critics found it rude, strange, and offensive.
4. The focus of the novel is on characterization, and plot is greatly deemphasized.
